

Ulrich Zeutschel

Exploring meaning - and enabling new meaning

Current positions and responsibilities

- Consultant at osb Hamburg GmbH
- Advising organizational development and change projects
- Designing and implementing learning architectures at professional and executive levels
- Coordinating key accounts in professional and management training programs

Recent consulting activities

- Coaching and facilitating teams in mission development and reorganization projects
- Designing and implementing training seminars
- Designing and facilitating teambuilding activities
- Designing and coordinating in-house surveys on leadership qualities
- Research, publication, and workshop facilitation on intercultural learning and team cooperation
- Advising and facilitating large-group conferences

Professional background

- Psychology Diplom, University of Hamburg (focus on consulting and training); study abroad at Michigan State University, East Lansing / USA
- Program director of international youth exchange organization
- Consultant and trainer at management consulting firm
- Manager, research project „Intercultural Synergy in Professional Teams“, Institute of Psychology at Regensburg University
- Commissioned lecturer at universities of Hamburg und Hanover, and at University of Applied Sciences Heilbronn
- Continuing training in conflict facilitation

„Genuine understanding requires a change of perspective - in myself as well as in my clients, whom I invite to take their step into a new perspective.“

Ulrich Zeutschel

osb Hamburg GmbH
Ballindamm 13
20095 Hamburg

T +49 40 339 333
M +49 170 380 06 74
ulrich.zeutschel@osb-i.com

www.osb-i.com

Berlin - Hamburg - Tübingen - Wien