

Thomas Dallüge

Physicist & Psychologist

The joy in discovering the relevant difference which charges the future with energy

Current positions and responsibilities

- Managing director of osb Berlin GmbH, board member and partner at osb International Consulting GmbH
- Management and organizational consultant with focus on leadership, strategy, organization, and change
- Coach and trainer for teams and individuals

Recent consulting activities

- Strategy development and implementation
- Organizational design, process architecture, and organizational culture
- Organizational change and change management
- Learning architectures and development designs for leadership and consulting
- State-of-the-art consulting and coaching approaches
- Facilitation for large groups and dynamic settings
- Consulting in sectors such as IT, automotive, energy, and media
- Consulting for universities and scientific organizations
- Consulting for non-profit organizations, public administration, and politics

Professional background

- Studies in physics, social sciences, and psychology at the Technical University of Berlin and Humboldt University of Berlin
- Further training as communication and behavioral trainer and as systemic interactive coach (both at artop Institute at HU of Berlin) and as systemic organizational consultant (next step, Management Zentrum Witten, MZW)
- 12 years of experience as project manager and managing partner at artop GmbH
- Lecturer in organizational consulting at Humboldt University of Berlin and in adult education at HTW Berlin – University of Applied Sciences
- Head instructor, trainer, and teaching coach

“To me, consulting means making the potential of individuals, groups, teams, and organizations available as future possibilities.”

Thomas Dallüge, Physicist and Psychologist

osb Berlin GmbH

Hufelandstr. 22
D-10407 Berlin

T +49 30 75524458
M GER +49 (171) 1958410
M AUT +43 (699) 15037932
thomas.dalluege@osb-i.com

www.osb-i.com

Wien - Berlin - Hamburg - Tübingen